OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

Mr. F. C. Alexander
President's Communications Policy Board
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Alexander:

The P. C. P. B. publications left with me upon your recent visit have been reviewed by members of my staff.

In general, it appears that the subjects noted in the outline of problems to be considered by the Board will, when fully developed, provide a sufficiently comprehensive basis for formulation of sound national telecommunications policies and for their implementation.

The views of this Agency relating to subjects of interest to CIA within the framework of the outline are being prepared and will be forwarded in the near future.

Sincerely,
